

CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF SOCIAL EXCLUSION AND INCLUSIVE POLICY :

- ABOUT THE CENTRE

The University established the Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy (CSSEIP) with the assistance of the UGC. The Centre was inaugurated in August 2007. All the teaching and non-teaching positions proposed by UGC for the Centre have been filled.

Some key objectives of the Centre are:

- Conceptualizing discrimination, exclusion and inclusion based on caste /ethnicity and religion;
- Developing understanding of the nature and dynamics of discrimination and exclusion;
- Contextualizing and problematizing discrimination exclusion and inclusion;
- Developing an understanding of discrimination at an empirical level;
- Formulating policies for protecting the rights of these groups and eradicating the problem of exclusion and discrimination.

The main functions of the Centre include teaching, research, documentation, training, and networking focusing on the theme of social exclusion and inclusive policy.

The Centre is located in the School for Ambedkar Studies (SAS). It has adequate space, standard furniture and equipments, such as photocopy machine, laptop and desktop computers, telephone and internet connectivity, handy cam and voice recorder, etc. All this enable it to undertake several activities like organizing lecture, seminar, workshop, research project, documentation, networking, etc.
